Admiralty-Office, June 18, 1796.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, have been received at this Office by Evan Nepean, Eſq;

Extract of a Letter from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Captain of His Majeſty's Ship Indefatigable, dated off Falmouth, June 13, 1796, to Mr. Nepean.

YOU will be pleaſed to make known to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty my Return off this Harbor, accompanied by the Squadron and Two National Brig Corvettes, which we fell in with about Eight Leagues from Uſhant, on Saturday Morning. The early Habit they have of making off as ſoon as ſeen led me to ſuſpect they were Cruizers; and, after a Chace of Twenty-four Hours, they were both captured. One is called Les Trois Couleurs, mounting 10 Guns and 70 Men, the other La Blonde, of 16 Guns and 95 Men, commanded by Enſigns Du Veſſeaux, both coppered; had left Breſt Two Days, to cruize for Six Weeks; had not taken any Thing.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingſmill, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean, dated June 12, 1796.

SIR,

BY my laſt, of the 10th Inſtant, you were acquainted, for the Information of my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that His Majeſty's Ships Unicorn and Santa Margaritta, Part of the Squadron under my Orders, had ſent in a large Ship, under Swediſh Colours, laden with Dutch Property, from Surinam; and that Lieutenant Carpenter, of the Unicorn, who brought her here, told me he had left our Ships in Chace of Three Sail, ſuppoſed to be Enemies.

Their Lordſhips will now have the Satisfaction of being informed, that thoſe Three Sail were French Frigates, viz. La Tribune of 40 Guns, La Tamiſe of 36 Guns, (formerly the Thames) and La Legere of 24 Guns, under the Command of Commodore Moulſon. Notwithſtanding that Superiority, His Majeſty's Two Frigates, immediately on aſcertaining what they were, crouded Sail after them; upon which the Enemy formed in Line of Battle, but ſhortly after declining to come to Action, they ſeparated, and endeavoured to eſcape. Captain Williams, in the Unicorn, purſued the largeſt, La Tribune, and I have no Doubt will give a good Account of her, while Captain Martin chaced and came up with La Tamiſe, which ſtruck to him after a ſmart Action, wherein Thirty-three of the Enemy were killed and Nineteen wounded, and only Two Men were killed and Three wounded on Board the Santa Margaritta. Unluckily, as the Legere could not be attended to during this Chace and Engagement, ſhe got off.

Their Lordſhips will find more Particulars on this Subject in the incloſed Letter to me from Captain Martin, who is ſafely arrived here with his Prize; which Capture is the more intereſting, as ſhe has been by far the moſt active and ſucceſsful of all the Enemy's Cruizers againſt our Trade.

The Credit of the Britiſh Name has been ſo eminently well ſupported on this Occaſion by the Zeal, Spirit and Judgment with which His Majeſty's Ships were conducted, that it becomes wholly unneceſſary for me further to expreſs my Senſe of the Merits of their Captains, Officers and Crews.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

R. KINGSMILL.

Santa Margaritta, at Sea, June 11, 1796.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you that on the 7th Inſtant, being in Company with His Majeſty's Ship Unicorn, Eighteen Leagues Weſt of Scilly, we diſcovered, at Two o'Clock in the Morning, Three Sail of Ships about a Mile on our Lee Beam; as the Day opened we perceived them to be Frigates belonging to the French Nation, which I communicated to Captain Williams by Signal, who immediately made Sail to join me, and on his near Approach made our Signal to paſs within Hail, for the Purpoſe of giving him Information of the Enemies Force. The Statement of their Superiority encouraged him in his eager Purſuit, having ſaid that he would attack the largeſt Ship, and deſiring me to engage the next in Strength. This noble Example inſpired every Perſon with Confidence of Succeſs, and each Ship ſteered for her Opponent; but the Enemy, determined to evade an Action, ſteered away large under a Preſs of Sale, the ſmalleſt Ship at the ſame Time making off to Windward: At Half paſt Eleven o'Clock, by our ſuperior Sailing, we arrived within Gun-Shot of the Enemy; but as they appeared to cloſe, for the mutual Support of each other, and the Unicorn being ſome Diſtance aſtern, I judged it prudent to poſtpone our Attack till ſhe was ſufficiently advanced to occupy the Attention of the French Commodore. At this Time the Enemy commenced a Fire from their Stern-Chace Guns. At One o'Clock, having approached them within Three Quarters of a Mile, we fired our Bow Guns, whenever a favourable Opportunity preſented itſelf, the Enemy at the ſame Time yawing to diſcharge their Broadſides. At Two o'Clock, the Unicorn being on our Weather Beam, we made Sail, keeping up a running Fight till a Quarter paſt Four o'Clock, when the ſternmoſt Ship finding it impoſſible to eſcape, put his Helm a-port, and endeavoured to rake us; but being fortunately baffled in this Effort afforded us an Opportunity of placing ourſelves abreaſt of him within Piſtol Shot, when a quick and well-directed Fire compelled him to ſurrender to His Majeſty's Ship in leſs than Twenty Minutes. She proved to be the Thames, commanded by Citoyen Fraden, mounting 36 Guns and 306 Men. The Ship, which the Unicorn continued in Chace of, is La Tribune, of 40 Guns and 320 Men, bearing the Broad Pendant, Citoyen Moulſon, Commander of a Diviſion; the other, which made off to Windward, is La Legére of 24 Guns and 180 Men; I am glad to obſerve that our Loſs is very diſproportionate to the Enemy, having only Two Seamen killed, and the Boatſwain and Two Seamen wounded, and her's Thirty-two killed and Nineteen wounded, and many of the latter have ſince died.

It is with extreme Pleaſure that I ſeek the preſent Opportunity of teſtifying my Gratitude to the Officers and Ship's Company for their active Zeal and ſteady Unanimity at all Times and in all Situations, but more particularly in the Capture of the Thames, on which Occaſion their Courage and exemplary Conduct is worthy of the greateſt Praiſe. The Readineſs of Mr. Harriſon, the Firſt Lieutenant, and his prompt Execution of my Orders, did eſſentially facilitate our Succeſs. It is my ſincere Wiſh to particularize each Individual, but where general Merit claims the greateſt Approbation, to diſcriminate becomes a difficult Taſk. In Addition to the Officers and Ship's Company, may I alſo be permitted to beg you will offer to the Conſideration of the Admiralty the meritorious Conduct of Captain Joſeph Bullen, a Maſter and Commander in the Navy, ſerving in the Santa Margaritta as a Volunteer, by Permiſſion from Lord Spencer: His Deſire to have ſome active Employment induced me to beg he would aſſiſt in the Management of the Main Deck Guns, as I well knew that his long Services and approved Courage in various Situations would be a proper Example to the younger Part of the Ship's Company.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

T. B. MARTIN.

Vice Admiral Kingſmill, &c. &c. &c.

L'Engageante, Cork Harbour, June 13, 1796, Three P. M.

SIR,

I Send this Expreſs to Cork, hoping it will overtake my Letter of this Date by the Poſt from hence, for the Purpoſe of giving to my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty as early as poſſible the agreeable Intelligence that His Majeſty's Ship Unicorn is now in Sight, off the Harbour, with her Prize La Tribune. I have the Honor to be,

SIR,

Your's, &c.

R. KINGSMILL.

E. Nepean, Eſq;

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingſmill, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels on the Coaſt of Ireland, to Mr. Nepean, dated Cork Harbour, June 14, 1796.

THE Expectations my laſt Letters to you muſt have raiſed, are moſt happily realized. I now with peculiar Satisfaction deſire you will acquaint their Lordſhips, that the French Frigate La Tribune, of 44 Guns and 337 Men, bearing Commodore Moultſon's Broad Pendant, is captured, and brought in here by His Majeſty's Ship Unicorn, commanded by Captain Williams, whoſe official Letter to me, containing a Detail of the Circumſtances, is herewith tranſmitted. It is remarkable, that though they were were close engaged for Thirty-five Minutes, and the Unicorn's Masts, Sails and Rigging are much cut and damaged, not a Man on Board was hurt, while the Enemy had Thirty-seven killed and Fifteen wounded.

Intrepidity and judicious Management were never more strongly manifested than in this Instance, which reflects the highest Honor on Captains Williams and Martin, and on every Individual under their Command, and they all have my humble but warmest Approbation and Thanks.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Williams, of His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, to Vice-Admiral Kingsmill, dated Unicorn, at Sea, June 10, 1796.

SIR, Holy Head E. S. E. dist. 8 Leagues.

I HAVE the Honor to lay before you a Narrative of the Proceedings of the Squadron under my Command since my Departure from Cork on the 19th Ult. On the following Day, in consequence of my having received Intelligence of the Enemy's Privateers being on the Coast, to the Northward of Cape Clear, I dispatched His Majesty's Sloop Hazard, with Orders to Lieutenant Parker her Commander to cruize between the Cape and the Mouth of the Shannon, while I, for the more effectual Protection of our Trade, cruized with the Santa Margaritta in the Vicinity of Cape Clear. I had the Satisfaction a few Days afterwards to learn that the Hazard had retaken Two Prizes, and had chaced the Privateer off the Coast that captured them, after a narrow Escape from being taken. On the 5th Instant, having met with other Ships of the Irish Station, I concluded upon making a Circuit on the outer Limits of my Station, accompanied by the Santa Margaritta, and at Dawn of Day on the 8th Instant, Scilly bearing E. Half S. 17 Leagues, we discovered Three Ships of War on our Lee Beam, distant Two or Three Miles, to which we immediately gave Chace, and soon afterwards perceived them to edge away, and that they were Enemy's Ships, Two Frigates and a large Ship Corvette. At Nine A. M. they formed themselves in a close Bow and Quarter Line, and continued to run from us in that Position, the largest Ship under easy Sail, for the Support of his Squadron. In this Situation we approached them very fast, and must have speedily brought them to Action. I therefore made the Signal to form for Battle, the Margaritta being at this Time a-head of the Unicorn, and at the same Time directed her by Signal to come within Hail, to learn from Captain Martin his Opinion of the Enemy's Force, who informed me, that the largest Ship was a 38 Gun Frigate, the Thames, and a Corvette. I ordered Captain Martin to attack the Thames, acquainting him with my Intention to fight the largest Ship with the Unicorn. On our nearer Approach, the Corvette, which detained the other Ships, gradually hauled out to Windward, and passed our Weather Beam in long Gun-Shot, steering afterwards the same Course as the other Ships, and with the Intention, I then imagined, to be in Readiness to give Support to either of her Friends eventually most needing it.

At One, P. M. the Two Frigates hoisted French Colours, the largest Ship a Commodore's Pendant, and at the same Moment commenced a quick and well-directed Fire on us with their stern Chaces; the Corvette at this Time hauled more up, and, to my great Astonishment, brought to, to board a Sloop passing us on the contrary Tack. As the Commodore continued to wait for the Thames we thereby approached them both, but were considerably retarded by the Effects of their Shot. At Four, P. M. the Thames being the sternmost Ship, bore round up, to avoid the Fire from the Unicorn, and to pour a Broadside into the Margaritta's Bow, when I had the Pleasure to see Captain Martin manœuvre his Ship with the greatest Judgment, and with the utmost Gallantry he laid himself close alongside his Opponent. The superior and well-directed Fire from the Santa Margaritta marked the Discipline of his Ship, and soon put the Thames into his Possession. The Commodore, on seeing his Companion fall, made all Sail, and by a sudden and judicious though unsuccessful Manœuvre, endeavoured to gain the Wind of the Unicorn. We were at this Time chacing him toward the Entrance of the Irish Channel, and soon after passed close to the Tusker Rock. The Parity of Sailing in the Two Ships, aided by the Judgment of the Enemy's Commander, kept us at running Fight for Ten Hours; during which Period we were much annoyed in our Sails and Rigging, and were for some Time unluckily deprived of the Use of our Main-Topsail; but on it's falling less Wind after Dark we were enabled to use our supernumerary Flying Sails, Royal Steering Sails, &c. which, by slow Degrees, brought us so near his Weather Quarter as to take the Wind from his Sails; when, at Half past Ten at Night, after having pursued Two Hundred and Ten Miles, we shot up alongside of our Antagonist, gave him Three Cheers, and commenced close Action, which had continued in that Position with great Impetuosity on both Sides for Thirty-five Minutes; when, on clearing up of the Smoke, I observed that the Enemy had dropt on our Quarter, was close hauled, attempting, by a masterly Manœuvre, to cross our Stern, and gain the Wind. This was happily prevented by our instantly throwing all aback, and giving the Ship strong Sternway, by which we passed his Bow, regained our Situation, and renewed the Attack. The Effects of our Fire soon put an End to all Manœuvre, for the Enemy's Ship was compleatly dismantled, her Fire ceased, and all further Resistance appeared to be ineffectual; they called to us they had surrendered. The Ship proves to be La Tribuue, commanded by Commodore John Moulston, mounting 44 Guns, though pierced for 48; on the Main Deck 26 Twelves, on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle 16 long Sixes, and 42 lb. Carronades; had on Board at the Commencement of the Action 337 Men, 37 of whom are killed, 13 badly and 2 slightly wounded. The Ship is quite new, launched since the Commencement of the War, sails extremely fast, is of large Dimensions, being on the Gun Deck Two Feet broader and Thirteen Feet longer than the Unicorn. Commodore Moulston, who I am sorry to add is among the Wounded, is by Birth an American, but has served Sixteen Years in the French Navy, and during the present War has always had the Command of a Division. The Squadron late under his Orders, consisting of La Tribune, La Proserpine, La Thames, and La Legére, of 20 Nine Pounders, had left Brest Two Days only, had taken nothing; La

Proserpine

Proſerpine ſeparated the preceding Evening in a Fog. I will not attempt to find Words to convey to you, Sir, the Senſe I feel of the Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company under my Command; for if it was poſſible for me to ſay any Thing that could add to the Glory of Britiſh Seamen, I have ample Field for ſo doing in the Situation I held this Day. Indeed nothing leſs than the Confidence of the moſt gallant Support from them, and the high Opinion I entertain of the Santa Margaritta our Second, could induce me to riſk an Action with a Force apparently ſo much our ſuperior; and while I congratulate myſelf upon the happy Effects of their Valour in the Capture of Two of the Enemy's Frigates, that have done ſo much Miſchief to our Commerce during the War, and on their preſent Cruize were likely to do ſo much more, you may eaſily conceive what my Feelings are, when I inform you, Sir, this Service is obtained without the Loſs of One of the brave Men in the Ship under my Command; my Happineſs will be complete, if I find the Santa Margaritta has been equally fortunate.

In Juſtice to the Officers of the Unicorn, I muſt beg of you to recommend to the Notice of my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty my Firſt and Second Lieutenants, Meſſrs. Palmer and Taylor, Mr. Quayle the Maſter, and Lieutenant Hatr of the Marines. I had great Reaſon to regret the Abſence of Mr. Carpenter, the Third Lieutenant, of Two Mates, and ſome of my beſt Seamen, who were the Evening before put on Board a valuable Ship from Surinam; but the able Aſſiſtance I ſhould have derived from Lieutenant Carpenter, I was made to feel the leſs by the Exertion of Mr. Collier the Purſer, who voluntarily offered and undertook to ſupply his Place to the beſt of his Abilities, and whoſe Name I beg you to include in your Recommendations to their Lordſhips. We are now uſing our utmoſt Exertions to put the Unicorn and her ſhattered Prize in a Condition to proceed to Cork.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

THO. WILLIAMS.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Amelius Beauclerk, Captain of His Majeſty's Ship Dryad, Plymouth Sound, June 16, 1796, to Mr. Nepean.

SIR,

PLEASE to inform their Lordſhips, that, on the 13th Inſtant, at One, A. M. Cape Clear bearing Weſt by North, Diſtance Twelve Leagues, we diſcovered a Sail ſtanding towards us from the Southward, but on nearing us hauled her Wind and tacked. I immediately chaced, and came alongſide of her at Nine, P. M. when, after a cloſe Action of Forty-five Minutes, ſhe ſtruck; proves to be the National Frigate La Proſerpine, mounting 26 Eighteen-Pounders, 12 Nines, and 4 Thirty-two Pound Carronades, with 348 Men, commanded by Citizen Pevrieu; ſailed from Breſt the 6th Inſtant, in Company with La Tribune, Thames, and La Legére Corvette; had not taken any Thing. I feel myſelf much indebted to the Officers and Men under my Command for their ſteady and ſpirited Exertions during the Action. I particularly recommend the ſenior Officer, Lieutenant King, as truly deſerving their Lordſhips Notice. It is with Pleaſure I add, that our killed conſiſted only of 2, and 7 wounded; La Proſerpine, 30 killed and 45 wounded.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c.

AM. BEAUCLERK.

Downing-Street, June 17.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Colonel Graham, dated Peri, May 31.

YESTERDAY Morning the French Army under the Command of General Bounaparté, conſiſting of about 22,000 Men, forced the Paſſage of the Mincio, at Valeggio.

General Beaulieu ordered the different Corps of his Army to retire on Caſtel Nuovo, except the Infantry at Goito, which, being Part of the Garriſon of Mantua, was ſent back there; and the Diſpoſitions were ſo well made, that this was executed without any Loſs: Every Attempt to moleſt them in their Retreat was not only immediately checked by the diſtinguiſhed Conduct of the Cavalry, both Auſtrian and Neapolitan, but the Right of the French Army was attacked, with great Intrepidity and Succeſs, by Eight Squadrons (Hulans and the Neapolitan Regiment du Roi) coming from Goito, who cut down a great many Men, took ſome Priſoners, (among them One of General Bounaparté's Aides de Camp, and Three other Officers) and brought off above 150 Horſes.

This Morning the Army, with all the Artillery (except Two Pieces of Cannon loſt at Valeggio) Ammunition, Stores and Baggage, paſſed the Adige in perfect Order at Chiuſa; In this Affair the Loſs of the French muſt have been conſiderable; that of the Auſtrians is trifling, and fell chiefly on One of the Battalions of Straſoldo, poſted at the Bridge of Valeggio, but in all it does not not exceed 300 Men, many of whom, being wounded, could not be brought off for Want of Waggons.

This Afternoon, while the Bridge at Chiuſa was removing, the French appeared on the Right Bank of the Adige, and began a Cannonade, which was returned. It has continued during all the Evening, with ſcarcely any Loſs on the Side of the Auſtrians.

Whitehall, June 18.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenantr General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Forces in the Weſt Indies.

Head Quarters, St. Lucia, May 2, 1796.

SIR,

IN my Letter of the 9th of April I expreſſed a Deſire to detach a Body of Troops to take Poſſeſſion of Demerary, provided that Admiral Sir John Laforey would afford me the neceſſary Naval Force.

The Admiral, upon my Application to him for that Purpoſe, immediately ordered the Malabar, La Picque, and Babet, on Board of which, and the Grenada Tranſport, with ſome ſmall Veſſels, Major-General Whyte, with the 39th, 93d, and 99th Regiments, giments, and a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, embarked and ſailed on the 15th Ultimo.

On the 21ſt this Squadron arrived upon the Coaſt of Demerary; and on the 22d the Governor and Council were ſummoned to ſurrender the Colony to His Britannic Majeſty upon the Conditions which I have the Honor herewith to incloſe. The next Day the Terms were agreed to, the Capitulation ſigned, and the Britiſh Troops took Poſſeſſion of the Fort and Colony. Lieutenant-Colonel Hiſlop of the 39th Regiment is left Commandant of Demerary and Iſſequibo.

Major-General Whyte was to proceed to take Poſſeſſion of the neighbouring Colony of Berbice; and, after making the neceſſary Arrangements, he is ordered to repair to his Station at St. Domingo.

From the Accounts received there is Produce to an immenſe Value at Demerary, which will be immediately ſhipped for Great Britain.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) R. ABERCROMBY.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

IN Obedience to your Excellency's Commands, I left Barbados on the 15th Inſtant, with a Detachment of the Artillery and Part of the 39th, 93d, and 99th Regiments, amounting to 1200 Men, eſcorted by the Malabar, Undaunted, La Picque and Babet Frigates, with the Grenada Tranſport and Five Schooners and Sloops, and on the 21ſt made the Land, when the Scipio joined the Fleet. That Evening, when the Tide made, the Babet and La Picque Frigates, with the Grenada Tranſport, paſſed the Bar, with the Schooners and Boats of the Fleet, and came to Anchor, within Random Shot of the Fort, at the Entrance of the River; and having, during the Night, prepared every Thing for Attack, at Day light appeared in Force, when I ſent a Flag of Truce by Lieut. Col. Hiſlop of the 39th Regiment, ſummoning the Governor to ſurrender the Colony and its Dependencies to His Britannic Majeſty's Forces, agreeable to the Terms which I have the Honor to incloſe, and which the Governor and Council accepted.—The Unanimity with which the Service was carried on between the Fleet and Army was pleaſing to all concerned, and Mr. Higgins acquitted himſelf with much Propriety and Utility. Captain Parr, who commanded the Fleet, has aſſiſted and ſupplied us from the Fleet liberally: And I have the Satisfaction to inform your Excellency, that from every Information I have received, and from above Seventy Ships being actually loaded with the Produce of the Country, now in the River, (moſt of which will be ſent to England) and from every Account of the Fertility of the Soil, it is a moſt important Acquiſition to Great Britain.

The Colony of Berbice adjoining to this being a ſeparate Government, I ſhall direct my Attention to it without Delay; and I ſhall leave Lieutenant-Colonel Hiſlop in the Command here, agreeable to your Excellency's Directions.

The Thetis, a Dutch Frigate of 24 Guns, and a Cutter of 12 Guns, are added to the Fleet; and Captain Parr has given Directions for deſtroying or bringing down the River a French Brig Privateer of Force.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WHYTE, Maj. Gen.

Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B.
&c. &c. &c.

By Major-General John White, Commander of His Britannic Majeſty's Land Forces, &c. &c. &c. and Captain Thomas Parr, Commander of His Britannic Majeſty's Ships, &c. &c. &c.

THESE are requiring you, the Governor and Council, Military and Naval Forces, of the Colony of Demerary and its Dependencies, to ſurrender the ſaid Colony to His Britannic Majeſty's Forces under our Command, and to place the ſaid Colony under His Majeſty's Protection, and quietly and peaceably to ſubmit to His Majeſty's Government.

In which Caſe the Inhabitants ſhall enjoy full Security to their Perſons, and the free Exerciſe of their Religion, with the full and immediate Enjoyment of all private Property, whether on Shore or afloat (excepting ſuch as may appear to belong to the Subjects of the French Republic), according to their ancient Laws and Uſages, or ſuch other as may be determined upon previous to the Colony's being placed under His Majeſty's Government, upon the moſt liberal and beneficial Terms.

That in the Event of the Colony's remaining under the Britiſh Government at the Concluſion of a general Peace, it ſhall enjoy ſuch commercial Rights and Privileges as are enjoyed by the Britiſh Colonies in the Weſt Indies. With regard to the Military and Naval Forces, that the Officers and Men of the Land Forces ſhall, if agreeable to themſelves, be received into the Britiſh Pay, with Leave, at the Reſtoration of the Stadtholder, to return into his Service. Each Non-Commiſſioned Officer and Soldier ſhall receive, upon his taking the Oath of Allegiance to His Britannic Majeſty to ſerve him faithfully during the War, where it may be thought proper to employ him, the Sum One Hundred Guilders.

The Officers to receive, under the ſame Conditions, the Allowance of Two Hundred Days Bat, Baggage and Forage Money, as paid to the Britiſh Officers.

The Officers and Men of the Marine Forces cannot be taken into the Britiſh Service until His Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhall be known, but ſhall receive Pay according to their Rank, and every Indulgence that can be allowed.

That the Governor and all Civil Officers, after having taken the Oaths of Allegiance to His Majeſty, which will be adminiſtered by Major-General Whyte, are (if they chuſe) to remain in their reſpective Situations, (excepting thoſe who have ſhewn a decided Partiality to the French Intereſt) the Governor only reſigning the Military Command. Should ſuch liberal Terms be refuſed, the Governor, Council, and all concerned, muſt be anſwerable for the Conſequences, as an immediate Attack will be made by the Land and Sea Forces, which will render every Reſiſtance vain.

Major-General Whyte and Captain Parr give the Governor One Hour, and no more, from the Delivery very of this by Lieutenant-Colonel Hiſlop, to accept or not. (Signed)

JOHN WHYTE, Major-General.

GENTLEMEN,

IT is out of my Power as yet to give a deciſive Anſwer to your Summons, demanding the Surrender of this Colony to His Britannic Majeſty's Forces, as my Duty requires of me to lay it before the Council, to whom it alſo is addreſſed, but which is not aſſembled at this Moment. I will, however, call the Members preſent together, and return about Twelve o'Clock an Anſwer.

I have the Honor to remain, &c.

By Order of the Council, M. Sinne, Sec. at Int.

To their Excellencies Gen. Whyte and Commodore Parr, Commanders of His Majeſty's Britannic Forces off Demerary.

Head Quarters, St. Lucia, May 2, 1796.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 22d of April the Fleet, with the Troops deſtined for the Attack of St. Lucia, ſailed from Carliſle Bay, and anchored on the Evening of the 23d in Marin Bay, Martinique, Admiral Sir John Laforey ſtill retaining the Command. On the 24th Sir John reſigned the Command to Rear-Admiral Sir Hugh C. Chriſtian, K. B. and on the Evening of the 26th we ſailed for St. Lucia. The Diſpoſition for Landing was arranged in the following Manner. Major-General Campbell was ordered to diſembark with 1700 Men at Longueville's Bay, which he accordingly effected without Oppoſition, except ſome Shots fired from Pidgeon Iſland.

In the Morning of the 27th he advanced to Choc Bay. As ſoon as the Head of the Column began to appear the Center Diviſion of the Army diſembarked near the Village of Choc, upon which about 500 Men, who had faintly oppoſed Major-General Campbell on his March, retired from Angier's Plantation to Morne Chabot. This Morne is one of the ſtrongeſt and moſt commanding Poſts in the Neighbourhood of Morne Fortuné, and as it was abſolutely neceſſary to occupy it to be able to inveſt Morne Fortuné on the North Side, Two Detachments from the Army, under the Command of Brigadir-General Moore and Brigadier-General Hope, were ordered to march that Evening to attack it on Two different Sides. Brigadier-General Moore marched at Twelve that Night, by the moſt circuitous Road, with Seven Companies of the 53d Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Abercromby, and 100 of Malcolm's Rangers, with 50 of Lewenſtein's. Brigadier-General Hope, with 350 Men of the 57th, 150 of Malcolm's, and 50 of Lewenſtein's, took the ſhorter Road.

From a Miſcalculation of Time, ariſing from the Information of Guides, Brigadier-General Moore's Diviſion fell in with the Advanced Picquet of the Enemy an Hour and a Half earlier than was expected. Finding that his March was diſcovered, and that it was impoſſible to halt the Troops, who, from the Narrowneſs of the Path, were obliged to march in ſingle Files, the Brigadier inſtantly decided to riſk the Attack with his own Diviſion, in which he was well ſeconded by the Spirit of the Troops, who formed with all the Expedition which the Ground would admit of, and after a conſiderable Reſiſtance carried the Poſt. Brigadier-General Hope's Diviſion marched with ſo much Preciſion that they arrived exactly at the Hour appointed; and if fortunately the Attack could have been executed as was directed directed the whole Force of the Enemy would have fallen. Brigadier-General Moore ſpeaks handſomely of the Behaviour of the Troops under his Command. A Return of the Loſs is herewith incloſed. From 40 to 50 of the Enemy were found killed, and 200 Stands of Arms, with ſome Ammunition, taken. The next Day Brigadier-General Moore occpied Morne Duchaſſaux, in the Rear of Morne Fortuné.

The Diviſion under the Command of Major-General Morſhead, which was deſtined to land at Ance la Ray, did not complete their Diſembarkation for ſome Days, owing to their Ships falling to Leeward. They are now in Poſſeſſion of the Bar of the Grand Cul de Sac, and inveſt Morne Fortuné on the South Side.

It is impoſſible to deſcribe the Difficulty of Communication in this Country, and as Morne Fortuné is now in a reſpectable State of Defence, it will require Time and much Labour to erect the neceſſary Batteries to reduce it.

Yeſterday the Enemy attacked the Advanced Poſt of the Grenadiers, who are commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Mac Donald, of the 55th Regiment, but were repulſed with conſiderable Loſs, though I am ſorry to add that we had ſeveral Officers and 40 or 50 Men killed and wounded, a Return of which I herewith incloſe. The only Officer killed was Captain Kerr of the York Rangers, the Reſt are ſlightly wounded, among whom is Major Napier of the 63d.

From the beſt Information I can obtain, the Enemy have a Garriſon of about 2000 well diſciplined Black Troops, ſome Hundred Whites, and a Number of Black People who have taken Refuge in the Fortreſs.

Sir Hugh Chriſtian has, upon every Occaſion, exerted himſelf to afford me every poſſible Aſſiſtance from the Royal Navy.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) RA. ABERCROMBY,
Lieutenant General.

P. S. I ſhould be guilty of a great Omiſſion, if I did not particularly mention the Zeal and Intelligence of Lieutenant-Colonel Roſs, of the 21ſt Infantry, in Brigadier-General Moore's Attack on the 28th of April, at Morne Chabot. To this Officer I am under great Obligation.

The Right Hon. Henry Dundas,
&c. &c. &c.

Head Quarters, St. Lucia, May 4, 1796.

SIR,

IT having been Part of the original Plan for the Inveſtment of the Morne Fortuné to drive the Enemy from the Batteries they had on the Baſe of the Mountain on the Side of the Grand Cul de Sac, and by that Means to open this Bay to the Ships of War, it naturally fell to the Share of Major-General Morſhead to execute that Service.

To render the Succeſs more ſecure, Brigadier-General Hope was detached from the Side of Morne Chabot with 350 Men of the 42d Regiment, the Light Company of the 57th Regiment, and Part of Malcolm's Corps, on the Night of the 2d of May, ſupported by the 55th Regiment, which was poſted at Ferrands; and Yeſterday Morning Major-General Morſhead was ordered to march in Two Columns, the Right to croſs the River of the Grand Cul de Sac at Cools, and the Left at the Mouth of the ſame River, where it falls into the Bay of the Grand Cul de Sac. Major-General Morſhead being taken ill, was obliged to reſign the Command to Brigadier-General Perryn.

Brigadier-General Hope carried the Battery Seche, within a ſhort Diſtance of the Works of the Morne Fortuné, with an inconſiderable Loſs, had not the brave Lieutenant-Colonel Malcolm unfortunately fallen upon this Spot. Colonel Riddle, who commanded the Column on the Left, got Poſſeſſion of the lower Battery, called Chapuis, and remained poſſeſſed of it for a conſiderable Time; but the Column under the Command of Brigadier-General Perryn never having croſſed the River at Cools, Lieutenant-Colonel Riddle remained unſupported, and Brigadier-General Hope's Diviſion alſo became unconnected, and conſequently placed in a very critical Situation. From theſe untoward Circumſtances, the Plan failed in the Execution, and the Troops retired to their former Poſition. The Ships of War, which were deſtined to enter the Cul de Sac, returned to their Anchorage. Brigadier-General Hope has mentioned to me the very gallant Behaviour of Captain Weſt, commanding the Light Company of the 57th Regiment.

I have the Honor to incloſe herewith a Return of the Killed, Wounded and Miſſing. From the intricate Nature of this Country, and the Difficulty of approaching the Morne Fortuné on any Side, except by Morne Duchaſſaux, I have been obliged to undertake a laborious Communication from Choc Bay to that Morne, and to form a Road capable of allowing the Tranſportation of heavy Artillery.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) RA. ABERCROMBY.
